

Bleak, Theweathervane

and i see the weather vane and i see storm clouds and i feel approaching rain and i sense everything... everything with a little of this all... and i... with a little of this all... and i... pray with a little of this all... and i... and i... with a little of this all... and i... fade and i feel my pulsing veins beating hard in cold rain i'm alive in storm clouds for awhile i'm everything... everything
