

Bledsoe, October Today

October today and all of these changes brave as I may Say that I am please say that I am the leaves and I fall again
The reason I called the reason I crawled to the place I am
From the place that I've been and all of your questions
I answer tonight
Yes I'm changing yes I'm breaking down and yes I need you around

October tonight and all of the light you took with you tonight
Like all of these things that autumn time brings well they fail me tonight
Tonight like I failed you

Seasons changing see me changing now see that you're around

October today and all of these changes...me
