

Bleeding Through, Rise

Sink your teeth into delicate skin
Armour that hides your thoughts for all this eternity
A clean break that will never heal
Is this the pain that was felt every day?
Fuck you, things will never change
So where's the pain that was felt everyday?
So fuck you, you'll never change, never change

Now we both bleed
Now we both die
Now we both lose inside
Now we both bleed
We've been here forty times
And we still lose forty one times
We still lose in the end
Time to rise
Every second of every hour
Time to rise
We all lose in the end

I'll forget this
I'll forget you
I'll forget everyone
I'll forget love letters you never fucking wrote
Is this the pain?
So where is the pain?
Is this the pain?
So bring the pain
Pain
So bring the pain
Mother fucker

I sweated blood for you
Time to rise
