

Bleeding Through, Sweet Vampirous

I've cursed this day with no regrets
With no compromise
Curse your grace

Shallow, this hatred that presses its finger to my lips
Simple love is to blame
I won't lay my head down with this shame
Kiss the sky
I'm always waiting here on the ground, on the ground

Be warned
Be warned
Be warned
Be warned

Be warned
Be warned
Be warned
Be warned

Save with this hatred that presses its finger to my lips
Be warned she'll kill you
Be warned she'll kill us all
Be warned she'll kill you
Be warned she'll kill us all
Be warned
Be warned
Be warned she'll kill you
Be warned she'll kill me
