

Bleeding Through, The Pain Killer

It's been three fucking days
Since sleep has taken me away
I found the remedy to erase you from my head.
I can't find a pulse to feel this
I'll never feel again
So say your last goodbyes
I'm taking back my sins
I'll take back the heart
I should of never let let you in.
So say your last goodbyes
Today I'm not coming back
I wont crawl back again
I never loved you
I never cared
I never loved you
You won't fuck the life from me again
Now your hands are filthy with narcissistic identities
A slave, another junkie
You're haunting the streets you're looking to feed
But I won't be your carcass, you can't add me to your pile of dead bodies
I'm driving the nails through your hands so you can't fuck the life out of me
You won't fuck the life out of me
You can't fuck the life out of me
I never loved you.
I never cared
I never loved you
You can't fuck the life out of me
You won't fuck the life out of me
