

Bless The Fall, Could Tell A Love

Well here go, my big plans
To build up this fortress into the clouds
It's made up of my love and my heart and my blood
We'll make it out
Can I stand, with the weight of the world?
Here I stand, with the weight of the world.
Can I stand, with the weight of the world?
Here I stand, with the weight of the world.
And this is all I've got I'll make it now or not
It's made up of my love
I've fought so hard to fade
Our lives are meant to make
It's made up of my love
Made up of my love
That's how it goes, it goes
Well here go, my big plans
To build up this fortress into the clouds
It's made up of my love and my heart and my blood
We'll make it out
I won't fall down, my heart still pounds
I'm breathing now, I won't fall down
I won't fall down, my heart still pounds
I'm breathing now, I won't fall down
I worship him, i wont fall down
Well here go, my big plans
To build up this fortress into the clouds
It's made up of my love and my blood and my heart
We'll make it out
We'll Make it out
We'll make it out
we'll make it out
we'll make it out
we'll make it out of it your not the only one
