

Blessed By A Broken Heart, Blood On Your Hand

[guitar solo]

I'm waiting for the ???? find you
They'll give a piece so heavy you wont know what to do
Comes around, Comes around and it's coming your way
I know it's coming xxx you say
Please tell me, How could you?
Please tell me, 'cause I'm dying to know!
Please tell me, How could you?
Please tell me, How could you take it away?
And go with your life
How can you live with that blood on your hands?
I'm waiting for the day when you open your eyes
And see the blood that's on your hands
With that blood on your hands
With that blood on your hands
You left your hustle far behind you
You thought you could get away get away with ???? who's gonna catch you? who's gonna catch you?
Please tell me, How could you?
Please tell me, 'cause I'm dying to know!
Please tell me, How could you?
Please tell me, How could you take it away?
And go with your life
How can you live with that blood on your hands?
I'm waiting for the day when you open your eyes
And see the blood that's on your hands
With that blood on your hands
??????
Please tell me!!
How could you??
Please tell me, How could you take it away?
And go with your life.....
