

Blessid Union of Souls, Walk Away

No one has all the answers,
For the questions on your mind.
You just want to know the reasons,
The reasons why.

No one said it would be easy,
There's morals and guidelines in this life.
But they can't stop from believing,
You can turn back time in your mind.

Deep inside you hear them say,
Live your life and walk away.
Don't wait any longer,
Cause it won't make you stronger,
Live your life and walk away.

Every passing day reminds you,
Every memory just seems to find your pain.
But hopefully tears will wash behind you,
Just like rain.

And every road you take to mending,
Seems a million miles away.
Though the hurt seems never ending,
You can walk away- you can fly away.

Deep inside you hear them say (walk away),
Live your life and walk away.
Don't wait any longer,
Cause it won't make you stronger,
Live your life and walk away.

Deep inside you hear them say (walk away),
Live your life and walk away.
Don't wait any longer,
Cause it won't make you stronger,
Live your life and walk away.
Walk away,
Walk away,
(yeah-ah-ah, yeah-ahh)
Walk away,
Walk away.
Walk away (ooo I walk away).
("walk away" until fade out)..
