

Blessid Union of Souls, Walking Off The Buzz

Amy woulda died for me
She woulda had my baby
If I needed a favor, it was yes
She never said maybe
And all the times we walked barefoot in the sand somehow we never felt the rain
Now I got nothin' but time She's got her life and now I've got nothing but mine

I could walk off the hurt, run through the pain,
Wipe all the tears pouring down my face Deny the dream that just never was
Oh, girl
I just can't walk off the buzz

Amy used to call me all the time
But she hasn't lately
I wonder if she goes out at all and if she's dating
And every time I walk alone along the beach somehow I always feel the rain
So many times I wished for my space
Now I wish I didn't feel so out of place

I could walk off the feel, crawl through the hate Beg you to forgive my every mistake Pretend you and I just never was
Oh, girl
I just can't walk off this buzz

Now that I'm lonely
I see you were the only one, yeah
Who ever knew me
Oh, baby and could see right through me

I could walk off the hurt, run through the pain
Wipe all the tears streaming down my face
Deny the dream that just never was
Oh, girl
I just can't walk off this buzz
