

Bletka, AWAYY

I've been waiting for a change to make myself more alive than i was I've tried to save my broken soul to fill the void caused by falling apart

But it's hard to forget you're stuck in my head
i lost every game, every game that you played

I've been awake
I've been awake
I've been awake

Now i'm running away
i'm running away
I've been awake
i'm running away

Home again
my own best friend
Find myself, be my own best friend

I tried to feel good
I tried to feel safe
I want somebody to call There's no help anyway

its time to find home again
Find myself, be my own best friend

Now i'm running away
i'm running away
I've been awake
i'm running away

Now i'm running away
i'm running away
I've been awake
i'm running away
