

BLIND, Echoes

This is the echo of my life
That I could turn my eyes from you
You are the light that guides my path
Choose I to stumble in the dark
This is the echo of my shame
Returning bouncing back to me
And when it seems I've thrown away
I'm hit again, yeah it hits again
And so from paradise you came
To what an awful place
Air stirred by angels in your wake
And here you took away my shame
You loved me as I am so I live again
Yeah I live again
