Blind Guardian, Banish From Sanctuary

In deserts I was preaching
The hand of God was with me
Baptized with water and I praised
The one who came behind me
To save us all with the holy ghost
-A prophet of the fools I've been lost

I'm sure you're there wandering around But do you care for me I'm alone
You talk of love not for me
In my dungeon cold I could think about All the things you've said
But I can't understand you famous son (Lead: Andr?

I left the way of heaven Or did you lead me from it

Ref.:

No No turning back I'm banished from Sanctuary The darkness in me is filling me with pain There's no way to turn back for eternity

In shadows I'm walking
And caught in loneliness
Deliverance I wait for but how long?
Are you the one who should come
Show me the light in you
Or should we wait for someone?
Another!

Ref.

(Solo: Andr?Lead: Marcus/Andr?

Your reich should come to this world Your way smoothed by my blood, friend My might will decrease but you'll get High, yes so much higher Be careful of the rats, friend Cause they'll never sleep Before they catch you, too

The blind can see the sun Cripples walk alone
The deaf can hear my words
They believe just believe
They believe in me
Look! The signs are near
To perform my task
To perform my way
To perform the way I walked
The way of the crucifix (Lead: Andr?

I hear the hangman coming I wait for execution
