

Blind Guardian, Hall Of The King

Alone I walk, hearing a voice that's calling my name no one should be here take no one with you god, why I didn't care

On through death take me away to the place time will not fade

Colder than dead darkness - eternity
but look out

A hundred thousand centuries the sun had never seen so near but so much too far eternal place you know what's life but cannot tell

I can never see you changing but you look to me time will never heal your wounds but you're immortal

Hall of the King a vision of the end Hall of the King don't cry for us don't hear us calling Oh watch out for me Hall of the light my last sign

You find yourself just take a look to see you must open your eyes like a hawk in the sky a wonder that dies
don't ask me why

You're the birth and you're the end you've been hurt but you're not dead discovering you is what should never be poisoned are our souls and dark our hearts
destructive are our minds it's much too late
