

Blind Guardian, Turn the Page

Come tell
We're here to praise your name

Blazing sun and the bitter death
Now the guardian cross the gate

Wake up!
There is a new dawning
Wake up!
The witches wait
For you remember the mirror
When she looked in
You were born

(Were) A boy in a middle of night
There's nobody else
There's nothing at all

Suns and dawn
There's a cry in the air
(The heart one dies
When you were ever there)

Turn the wheel again!

A new beginning
Another end
Cried out
The land needs blood
Inside the ring you're waiting
Give up yourself and your life

It's time up for you
Come turn the wheel
There's nothing to feel
Come turn the wheel
Come turn the page
Oh, come turn the page

(Solo 1)

We do not believe in lies
Do not believe in lies

Then someone came
Someone came
Your alone and strong
The end of world
Now everything should move
When the new day begins

God of wind and god of rain
Turn the wheel
You better beware
From now this day will sing for you
The life will bless the child

(Realize)him
Supervise him
We will be with you until the end
Come move our hearts
We know there is life beyond the death

Cried out

We cry for blood
Come right up here and join us
Come guide us now
Time is out

It's time up for you
Come turn the wheel
There's nothing to feel
Come turn the wheel
Come turn the page
Oh, come turn the page

(Solo 2)

A new beginning
Another end
The myth of life
Your heart in your hand
We cried out
The land needs blood
The change of season
Praise to the newborn king!

Na, na, na, nanananana!
Na, na, na, nanananana!
Na, na, na, nanananana!

It's time up for you
Come turn the wheel
There's nothing to feel
Come turn the wheel
Come turn the page
Oh, come turn the page
