

Blind Iris, Older

I'm getting older
And I'm still trying to find my way
Airs getting colder
I live my life I'm not afraid
I live my life
In disarray
But I live my life

I'll come around to see you
Even when you're sitting by yourself
When my fears bleed through
I picture you with someone else
I picture you
With someone else
I swear you'll never be
I see it in my dreams

I'm getting older
And I'm still trying to find my way

Been going nowhere
I live my life I'm not ashamed
I'll live my life I'm not ashamed
I swear you'll never be
Alone, Yeah
Alone, Yeah
Alone, Yeah

I'm getting older
And I'm still trying to find my way
Airs getting colder
I live my life
I'm not afraid
I live my life
I'm not ashamed
I swear you'll never be
I've seen it in my dreams
