

Blind Iris, Until I See You Again

You bring the fears I face
It's the way you taste
Until I see you again
It's weighing on my soul
O.K. if nobody knows
Until I see you again
This silence seems to scream
You are not what you seem
Until I see you again
You bring the fears I face
It's the way you taste
Until I see you
I'll roam alone
Until I see you
So alone
Until I see you

An image in my head
You lying in my bed
Until I see you again
You taught me how to crawl
I'll follow if you fall
Until I see you again
I feel it on my chest
Will your body rest?
Until I see you again
You bring the fears I face
It's the way you taste

Until I see you

I'm lost now
Shackled and tied down
Maybe this time I'll learn
From all the mistakes I've made
My heart bleeds
These are the fees
That bring be to my knees, Yeah
Until I see you

I'll roam alone

You fill my life with rage
You made our love a cage
Now I see you
I see it when you walk
I hear it when you talk
Now I see you
You're jealous and you're vain
So clumsy with your name
Now I see you
You bring the fears I face
It's the way you taste
Now I see you
