

Blind Melon, No Rain (Rippes Away)

All I can say you know my life it's pretty plain
I like watchin' the puddles gather rain
And all that I can do, is just pour some tea for two
And speak my point of view, but it's not sane
No it's not sane
No it's not sane
No it's not sane
It's not sane
And I don't understand why I sleep all God damn day
And I start to complain when there's no rain
All that I do, is read a book to stay awake
And don'tcha know that
It rips my life away
It rips my life away
And it rips my life away
And it will rip your life away
