

BLIND, Smile Again

Why is it you run from me
Why hide yourself away
How can you have felt his love
Then turn away?
What is it that writes these lies
How long will you betray our trust
Can you see these tears of mine
They flow for you

(CHORUS)

Take his hand he'll show you the way
Longing to see you smile again
Take his hand he'll show you the way
It hurt so much to see you this way
Why is it you run from me
Why hide yourself away
How can you have felt his love
Then turn away?

(CHORUS)

You're desperate, you're searching
For meaning but you're looking
In all the wrong places
You're desperate, you're searching
For meaning but the answer's
Right in your hand

(CHORUS)
