

BLIND, We Can Stay

shes a star and a saint, shes alone, she cant tell somehow shes so good and so bad, means a lot to you working hard for a dream and you know how to break her down know the name and the look, you know the face fake a smile, be a friend that is all that she has somehow and now I make you scream and shout her name her life is a misery shes all that you wanna be let me drown again, fake your smile this is just what I wanna feel open up your eyes shes a king for a day, shes a fool for a lifetime now shes gonna pay all her life, you let her drown shes the truth in the air, shes a light leading thru the dark
her life is a misery
open up your eyes
you opened up your eyes
