Blind Zero, The Down Set Is Tonight

Secrecy Life on the wire Joy in my weakest hour

A gas lit scent on the garden of haze The excitement from the dawning is leading the way, tonight

I wish to crash, so fire would give me wings Time flies with me Mist stardust joins the lust The down set is tonight

Blow me away I might undercover my downfall delight Tonight I'm blowing away

Picture yourself lying on the ground Licking wounds on glass I'll be, tonight On the egde of the blade 'Cause I die where safe-standing lives The down set is tonight

Blow me away
I might undercover my downfall delight
Tonight I'm blowing away
I keep driving
The down set is tonight
To my delight
To blow away tonight
