

Blink-182, Don't

Don't

There was a time long ago
But it seemed like yesterday
When all I wanted was you

And now you make a segway
As you turn your face away
And I know your words aren't true

And I don't want your lies
And I don't think that I'm Gonna let you inside

And you can take off your disguise
Cause I can see the truth that's hidden Behind your eyes

And all those words that you don't say just mean less and less each day you can't make me shed a tear

I think about tomorrow
Another day of sorrow
But I don't think that I'll be here
