

Blink 182, Love Is Dangerous

I have had it with this damn double vision
My hands swollen, I can't keep holding on
My hearts sinking and stuck in deadly rhythm
I can't fake it. I can't, can't brush it off.

Love, love is dangerous
Love, love is so dangerous

I'm back at it, I just don't seem to listen
I see your lips, I just can't hear the sound
It's all static, just like my television
There's still something, her eyes cut through the clouds

(I need) love, love is dangerous
(Here it comes, don't be fooled when she says it)
Love, love is so dangerous
(We'll betray the ones we care about)
Love, love is so dangerous
(Life's cruel so we all pretend to find)
Love, love is dangerous

(I need) love, love is dangerous
(Here it comes, don't be fooled when she says it)
Love, love is so dangerous
(We'll betray the ones we care about)
Love, love is so dangerous
(Life's cruel so we all pretend to find)
Love, love is dangerous
