

Blink-182, Reebok Commercial

You are better than me,
Girls, money, and everything I...
Try to compete with you
But you beat me at everything I do

I see in you
The things that I would like to be
But I'm different from you
So you will have to be like me

I cannot be bought
My personality is what I choose
I was brought up without a silver cup
I won't covet the things owned by you

For all the world
Material things are now more and more
Jealousy for you and me

I won't covet the things owned by your store

I cannot be bought
My personality is what I choose
I was brought up without a silver cup!
I won't covet the things owned by you
