

Blinker The Star, Crazy Eyes

She'll make a mess of you
If you're without a clue
Champagne's easier
I'm spilling grease all over
Too bad lover you bought it
We sleep in shallow water
For this I cannot justify
Misnomer if you're caught
Believing all you've wrought
It's nothing don't forget
That you're still nothing yet
Too bad lover you bought it
We sleep in shallow water
For this I cannot justify
My release in another life
You, you be good, you with crazy eyes
