

Blinker The Star, There's Nowhere You Can Hide

You called me out, and just this once
I'll keep within the circle that's drawn
Now I see you must be right
The candle's out but now we must try
I swear I'm alright
No pills at night, no desperate afternoons
Don't save me anymore
I'll stand here till I die
Believe me one more time
I know you've seen the other side
The go-getters, they just look so bright
Check my eyes, I look alright, you must believe
For once it's true
I've never felt so sure before
I swear I'm alright
No pills at night, no desperate afternoons
Don't save me anymore
I'll stand here till I die
There's nowhere you can hide
