

Bliss 66, If We Could

Whos it gonna be, you or me
Im the one whos looking and youre the one I see
If its meant to be
Are you alright, are you okay
You know I never thought it would end this way
Therell be brighter days
When I see you smile again, youll be mine again

If we could fly away
To a place where theres no yesterday
Maybe well find a way
To erase the marks of all this pain
All this pain

Whos it gonna be, you or me
Im still looking but its getting hard to see
If this is meant to be
And are you alright, youre doing okay
You know I never wanted to leave you this way
Therell be brighter days
And Ill see you smile again, youll be mine again

If we could fly away
To a place where theres no yesterday
Maybe well find a way
To erase the marks of all this pain

If we could fly away
To a place where theres no yesterday
Maybe well find a way
To erase the marks of all this, of all this pain

So whos it gonna be, you or me
Im the one whos looking and youre the one I see
If its meant to be
