

Bliss 66, Letting Go

Hey, Hey
Hey, Hey, Hey

Heard the news last Friday night
They told me that the end's in sight
I don't know what to say to you
I don't wanna believe it's true

Chorus:

'Cuz you and I, we're gonna live forever
You and I, we're gonna be together
We don't have to say goodbye
You just have to close your eyes
And you don't have to tell me why
I seen you run the other side

Hey, Hey
Hey, Hey

All the years I've spent with you
All the things that we've been through
They could never be enough
I never thought it would hurt so much

Chorus

It's not supposed to be this way, No No (Hey, Hey, Hey)
It's not supposed to be this way, No No (Hey, Hey, Hey)

And we don't have to say goodbye
You just have to close your eyes
And you don't have to tell me why
I've seen you run the other side

Love for you I let you know
Now it's time for letting go
