

Bliss N Eso, The Dark Tower

{{Song||Bliss N Eso|star=Green}}

(some strange fuckin intro)

(in a wierd voice)

hook: i would like to talk to you tonight, you see i am a guide from another galaxy in time, and if you sprinkle what i give you over your golden eyes, then you will lift up and rise above, and fly the night sky.

Eso:

i grew wings, yo' i grew wings within a matter of minutes, the rainbow feathered mad hatter of lyrics, trying to find freedom and manage a buisness, serching for sunlight, trapped in a blizzard, it's like dungens and dragons with emcee esher eyes, dance in my dust storm, rent free enterprise, so let my emphasise the fact, that i'm a jet lee chess piece bending rhymes back, to there original position, so every track is an imperial dominion, i kick flip words in a cancan cottage, and ride my flying fox over a bamboo forrest, now thats enjoying the high, straight from the mouth of a boy who can fly, you can't hold me back or these housing tenements, cause were ready and heavy like a thousand elephants, so welcome everybody to my caravan of courage, the aussie jack sparrow, not a parrot talking rubbish, on my way back from the degabah system, writing rhymes to my heavy hearts rhythm, listen and chase
