

Bloc Party, Selfish Son

I took it too far, I took it too far again
Cut me down
I took it too far, I took it too far again
On the Lower East Side

I took it too far, I took it too far again
Night bleeds into day
I took it too far, I took it too far again
I nearly lost you

I can be cruel, I can be cruel
To you
I can be cruel, I can be cruel
To you, my love

Typical me, typical Libra
Spit the dummy
Typical me, typical Libra
The grass is always green

This city is razed on borrowed time
Taxi meters, police sirens
This city is razed on borrowed time
I nearly lost you

I can be cruel, I can be cruel
To you
I can be cruel, I can be cruel
To you
I can be cruel, I can be cruel
To you
I can be cruel, I can be cruel
To you, my love

Selfish son
Selfish brother
Selfish child
Selfish lover

I can be cruel...
