

Blodsrit, Crossing Spheres Of Fire

(Music & Lyrics: Nazgl)

mighty are the storms in which I breath infernal are the powers I possess like many times before I ride a thought of insanity but far away I see a dawn a new dawn without a God and if I'll manage to spread these wings of an insane mind and pass the border to another reality then I can be free and forever be my own God a journey into the unknown where only fires paints the skies where suffering is the only real where I will let my soul rest forever...
