

Blonde Redhead, Ego Maniac Kid

your fault my fault i now forget your life my lies wouldn't be the last i dive into plastic events apartment full of evidence what's false to you was not false to me your time my time it all gets to me you fake your name for reentry imagine greater sin

i want to live on the 5th story
i like to feel the thrill of day pretend you're meaner
pretend you're busy
too long for a promise
a show to start...ah

another song
just another way
to tear away

your life my lies wouldn't be the last

the end to stare at i know i know i want to reach like i've never... i wait i know i'll wait but i never...

i never...was
another song
just another way
I get away
