

Blonde Redhead, Equus

Allow me to show you
the way which I adore you
allow me to show you

sometimes I think I must just let you be
let you be a horse
all I want is to be a rider
to be part of you

allow me to show you
allow me to show you

sometimes I think I must
just let you be
afraid so afraid
to lose you
if someone looks at you turn into donkey
pretend you are lame

allow me to show you

allow me to show you

Equus by nature, timid creature ready to run away
cares nothing for the plans they made

allow me to show you
allow me to show you

allow me to show you

allow me to show you

(I will hide you will protect you won't let anyone take you away)
