

Blondie, Feel The Spin

Hey now honey
I'm about to begin
Hear the intention
Near me again
Been too impatient
And I'm ready to spill
So tired of waiting for my turn to trill
Tyring to fly
Trying to get a break
A space to move
And the movement to make
Triangle toes
Two love's continue
Why in the world
I'm a circular girl
Ohh, baby I feel the spin
Turing me round and round
Taking me out of town
Ohh, I feel the spin
Messing me round and round
Making my madness drown
Hey, now honey rotation set in
To a drive in dimension do it again
Hey, I'm standing on top of the world
Dreaming and spinning, as free as a bird
I'm dizzy from pressure
I hold out my pleasure
A space to move
And some music to make
I'm spellbound from watching your radio ?
It's off we me
Oh, I'm a circular girl
Ohh, baby I feel the spin

It's turning me round and round
Taking me out of town
Oh, I feel the spin
Messing me round and round
Making my madness drown
Oh, I feel the spin
Taking me round and round
Throwing me out of bounds
Oh, I feel the spin
Turing me around
(Round and round)
I'm dizzy from pressure
I hold out my pleasure
I'm spellbound from watching your radio ?
It's off we me

(Round and round)
