

Blondie, X Offenders

I saw you standing on the corner
You looked so big and fine
I really wanted to go out with you
So when you smiled
I layed my heart on the line

You read me my rights
And then you said "Let's go" and nothing more
I thought of my nights and how they were
They were filled with

{Chorus}
I know you wouldn't go
You'd watch my heart burst then you'd step in
I had to know so I asked
You just had to laugh

We sat in the night
With my hands cuffed at my side
I looked at your life and your style
I wanted nothing more

{Chorus}

Walking the line
You were a marksman
Told me that law like wine is ageless
Public ... defender
You had to admit
You wanted the love of a sex offender

{Chorus}

My vision in blue
I call you from inside my cell
And in the trial you are there
With your badge and rubber boots
I think all the time
How I'm going to perpetrat love with you
And when I get out
There's no doubt
I'll be a sex offender to you
