

Blood Has Been Shed, Call Waiting (John Doe Has The Upper Hand)

Tragedy seems to come in a pair of expensive shows
Never notice the disguise until it walks up and slaps you in the mouth
Can't say that is very subtle at all
But who knows, maybe just maybe just....I might shut you up
Think you can listen for a second
Hope you aren't too bothered or busy
Better do something about that wound
It&#25263; festering your reek of decay and its coming from the inside out
Have I got your attention now?
I've got your attention now
Well it sure took long enough I can spit in those wounds
That might help
Really I'll bet you thought the world owed you a whole lot more
Sorry to push your not buttons it's what I do
Pretty much perfected this after thousands of years
You should savor these moments
