Bloodbath, Hades Rising

Vengeance provoked behold the mark of cain Uncreate the genesis devoured by the abyss

Cleave the covenant and powers that grant Bury the testament tumbled by torment

Nocturnal infernal The suffering eternal soaking the rays of celestial Light noctiluca

Profane arcane Benediction of bane falling through cracks of Darkness obumbration

Kingdoms quake mountains move Skies collapse sulphur decending Suns eclipse seas overflow End of days Hades arising

The father son and holy ghost Tridents penetrate steel and flesh conjugate

Vaporize the spirits of distress sabaoth of legions Redder the regions

Time in reverse the god heads rear The blood divine splattered on the three-pronged spear the dagger of night Hearts stabbed and cloaked the banishing of the fallen one has been revoked
