

Bloodbath, Wretched Human Mirror

Baptized in vermin gagging on leeches twisting in your throat Swallow the parasite alive in the liquid that is flushing through your viscera Mind disintegrates
replacing the blood with virus and insects Revel in this death letting something in that will not be exorcised

Human guinea pig image of despair Bastard waiting suffering upon the cross of surgery

Red drift from the eyes so dark the panic
So rotting this demise inhale your own impending death Breathe in disgorge
Maggots crawl in your last breath

Surgical carnage chunks of your own flesh are forced into your mouth Removing the face wretched human mirror Incarnation of disgrace ice cold eyes Long since emptied of hope and faith staring dead into the void Internal ultra-violence body and mind destroyed
