

Bloodflowerz, Ablaze

Not just one death to die always a reason why the wheel is turning

i write the five on the wall i dance the hills till i fall the fire is burning

i will pick the sin again seduce a saint in eden there is more to understand the signs bleed in your hand keep the fire ablaze and dance with me

till the end of all days come with me

the sermons about the divine smell like bad purple wine i stay sober

when creed abuses the wise the truth is fucked by some lies the world falls over

i seduce you, want to show you the light that burns inside i refuse to be a slave of your lies
