

Bloodflowerz, My Treasure

do you wanna own me do you wanna own me, touch me do you wanna have me come

since i saw you the first time i knew that you will be mine my heart turned blind through your shine darling it's true, i would kill for you darling it's real, i would lie and steal that i can touch you, hold you, say you're mine do everything to get you and enjoy your shine you're everything and you are mine everything i would do, everything for me and you no one else will ever touch you you can't say no, i don't let you go you'll be mine, my sunshine i choose you, you are the one
