

Bloodflowerz, The Death Of Souls

tomorrow will make it right, i said so easy to run away, hide in a holy prayer and repeat the last day tomorrow i'll be someone, i said i walked beside the dying souls, had no dreams and no goals someone will show me the world i said a god to save, a jesus who dies on the cross no there's no one to decide my decision and there's no one create a vision for me

no one can take my pain
no one can stop the rain for me no one can live my life no one can hold the dead alive
no one can stop the rain for me just myself to save my life just myself to keep myself alive
