

Bloodhound Gang, Right Turn Clyde so set your phasers on kill if ya will so catch the feeling got your head a pumping a back and forth until it hits the ceiling now I'm wheeling dealing stealing johnny's apple seeds slapped you with a baseball bat upside the head until it bleeds showing no mercy step like solomon Grundy hit ya with a table leg like I was ted bundy I bludgeoned you you're bloodied I think it's kinda of funny first I'll take your money and then I'll swipe your honey dip slip to the a. m. what is that you're saying? you think you start praying it's not a game you're playing pump one pump two listen to the shotgun blast I'll blast that sorry ass when you're all outta gas I freak like cerebral pals I'll get inside your drawers for alarm there is no cause I funk like Lou Rawls Basco Roscoe P. Cottrane I wish I had a membrane so that I could go insane red light green light you know I always win this game you can be my gingerbread and I'll be your candycane rang dang diddlela dang a dang baby

rang dang diddlela dang a dang baby
rang dang diddlela dang a dang baby you might say no but I hope you mean maybe no chance in hell but I could tell you crave me frisky from the whiskey and the thrills you gave me taste great but less filling so thrilling come unannounced like automatic billing and you can't do nothing as I push your buttons when I talk you're gonna listen like I'm E. F. Hutton like Lionel Richie's up all night long Jimmy Pop don't do nobody wrong stop flop flip and flop panties drop now I'm on top so wiggle it just a little bit I won't kiss your ass to get a piece of it you said you wanted to do it now you're coming around to it I'm the one that sowed the seed but you're the one that grew it take it blow by blow like Reginald Denny I do it all the time how many? many frauleins I'm coming again like Jesus and when I resurrect I'll be damned if I don't please ya our Jimmy Pop that art in hell hear it fill me with your holy spirit
rang dang diddlela dang a dang baby
rang dang diddlela dang a dang baby
rang dang diddlela dang a dang baby
you might say no but I hope you mean maybe einie meanie miney moe which of you girls will be my ho' cross your fingers grit your teeth cause the Bloodhound Gang makes holes in beef we make holes in beef
we make holes in beef
we make holes in beef
we make holes in beef
so watch your back straight to the attack I'll spin you around like your name was Pat Sajak tag your ass out and no tag backs you psycho nymphomaniac
rang dang diddlela dang a dang baby
rang dang diddlela dang a dang baby
rang dang diddlela dang a dang baby
