Bloodshoteye, Coward

Outershell is so sweet Your inner core is rotten Thats what makes me want you In the worst way There your body will lay Buried in the lawn There your body will lay Buried within the soil That is what makes us spoil Rotting in the dirt You will no longer hurt Say goodbye to this life And say hello to this knife Slitting away at your throat On your own blood you choke The fear you feel will never surpass Even after they lay you to rest The damage has already been done Starving for more, relieved I saved some Of some of your remains Victims I crave Bloodthirsty I drank till you were empty Tainted you taste of bitter infection Disgusted I start to slice away at Your corpse my inner aggressions Cut up into pieces Bleed, Sore, Scar, Die Look into my eyes Say goodnight Now the time has come For me to have some fun I'll show you how its done Drenched in blood I can't get enough So I dismember you and Store you inside my fridge Little bitch Your dead body is mine for the night Another fuct up trip Another pyscho trip Now that I have got you

You were just a fuck
