

bloodsimple, Blood In Blood Out

I'm a little insane
I'm a little deranged
I got this take stuck in my heart
Eyes filled up with rage
Haven't slept in 10 days
But it's the fuel need and I will rise above

Blood in and blood out
And don't you ever fucking let me down

Now you're back in the game
Can't keep up the pace
This race was mine from the start
Fuck life in the cage
Break all the chains
The fuel I need and I shall rise above

Blood in and blood out
And don't you ever fucking let me down

Lie for the money
Die for the money
Cry cause you're all underpaid
Lie for the pussy
And die by the pussy
Cry in a world full of pain
And you that fucking fashion queen
Fuck the fashion
Fuck the city and that dream

Blood in and blood out
And don't you ever fucking let me down
