

bloodsimple, Path To Prevail

Leave your mark etched in time
You be yours and ill be mine
On separate sides
You know

I've been lost in so much fucking sadness
My life kills me

Won't you give me a reason
A path to prevail
Injustice, this reason, this rape
All I believe in it's dragging me down

To split the lip and leave a scar
Do you in and do you wrong
It wont be hard

I've been lost in so much fucking sadness
My life kills me

Won't you give me a reason
A path to prevail
Injustice, this reason, this rape
All I believe in it's dragging me down

You can't count the times I've been worked over
You're full of shit
I vow now to return
I've already been your god

Won't you give me a reason
A path to prevail
Injustice, this reason, this rape
All I believe in it's dragging me down
