

bloodsimple, Running From Nothing

5 a.m.

Laying still lonely

Yeah, head over heels falling

Yeah, what's out tonight calling to nothing

I can't seem to rest with a fucking pain in my chest

There's no sense in running from nothing

I can't seem to shake myself awake longing

So I call out your name

Somebody save me

But there is nobody there

Cause nobody cares

No one cares

I can't seem to rest with a fucking pain in my chest

There's no sense in running from nothing

It's all in my head

Everything is done

Everything is gone

I can't seem to rest with a fucking pain in my chest

There's no sense in running from nothing
