

Bloodthorn, The Return Of Wrath

The world burns
Brought to it's knees
By the beast of war
Cities are laid to waste
Nations collapse
Under the reign of terror
Fire storms raging the sky
The sign of mankind's
Ultimate defeat

Death and decay rise from the soil
Spawned by the blood of men
From beneath the seas they return
From their ancient slumber

"Harbingers of chaos arise from your cursed tombs"

Controlled by the ageless hatred
A wrath evoked with time
Released by defilement of flesh
Once bound by the powers of mind

Inciting acts of cruel violence
Revel in the mystery of generations
Fulfillment of the ancient curse
Abolish of the reign of humanity
