

Bloody Mess, Coma

CHORUS

Failing to reawaken (breathe)
I take another breath
Alone forsaken (breathe)
This dream ain't over yet

Enclosed within myself
A coffin of my flesh
How can I cry for help?
When it's my lips I can't unclench

A slave of my own heart
It's beating strangles me
Can there be any life?
When there's no energy

I hear a voice out there
But is it truly real
Or is it one produced
By what my mind would like to feel

I stumble in the dark
And pace myself for luck
Because a time will come
This dream will be undone

CHORUS

A twisted tale, a maze
I frantically traverse
Looking for another way
For me to break out of this curse

A feeling once I had
Keeps me all their inside
If I could bash my head
At least I'd know I'm still alive

And what's this sound I hear
A wind is blowing east
My visions disappear
And I'm still stuck in here

Just let me out this cage
Now all I feel is rage
If I could choke on air
I'd end this nightmare so unfair

CHORUS

No word is good enough
To tell you how I feel
Impotent, helpless
This is what fills my dreams
No life for me to sunder
Not even one I have
So now I tell you listen
There are worst things than death
