

Bloom 06, The Old Field Of Angels

"Bloom 06 - The Old Field Of Angels"

Far away from where we live there's a place where we've all been lost in dream.

Where you believe in all you're told a place where even lead was gold cause it's all you owned.

Take me back to that place where you only have one face you and your mistakes.

Once upon a time
you were not a stranger
in the old field of angels.
And once upon a time
you were a growing angel
in the old field of angels
in the old field of angels

Far away from where we live
there's a place where we've all been
lost in dream.

Where you believe in all you're told
cause it's all you owned.

Take me back to that place
where you only have one face
you and your mistakes.

Once upon a time
you were not a stranger
in the old field of angels.
And once upon a time
in the old field of angels
in the old field of angels

Far away from where we live
