

Bloops, The Honesty Song

I'm glad I'm not retarded
That would be really bad
I'm glad I don't have autism
That would be really sad
I'm glad my brain functions normally
I'm glad I'm an average student
I'm glad I don't drool all over myself
I'm glad I'm not really stupid

Hey! At least I'm being honest
Being gay is okay, but it's kind of disgusting, too
Hey! At least I'm being honest
I'm not attracted to black girls
and Mexicans scare me, too

What if I meet a midget?
Do I call him a little person or a dwarf?
What if I meet a Klingon like Commander Whorf?
I'm glad I don't have cancer
Cause those people freak me out
If an Indian calls should I answer with, "How are you?" Or just
"How"

Hey! At least I'm being honest
Being gay is okay, but it's kind of disgusting, too
Hey! At least I'm being honest
I'm not attracted to black girls
and Mexicans scare me, too

SPOKEN: Man, I saw this guy in a wheelchair on the street today, and I wanted to cross to the other

Hey! At least I'm being honest
Being gay is okay, but it's kind of disgusting, too
Hey! At least I'm being honest
I'm not attracted to black girls
and Mexicans scare me, too

Hey! At least I'm being honest
Being gay is okay, but it's really disgusting, dude
Hey! At least I'm being honest
I'm not attracted to black girls and Latinas are kind of cute

Honesty is a virtue
