

Blue, Army Of Lovers - Lee Ryan

There's an army of lovers dying to meet you
Dying to make your acquaintance
It could be you or it could be me
So don't let go 'cause I need you so

I'm yours and you were mine
There's something about you baby
I wanna hold you tonight

Accidents happen in strangest of places
How come they happen at all
Look for the turning, for something or nothing
I won't let go 'cause I need you so

I'm yours and you were mine
There's something about you baby
I wanna hold you tonight

Everytime I see you
You complete my life
Got to find an answer
Stay with me tonight, stay with me
Oh baby won't you stay with me
Stay with me

There's an army of lovers dying to meet you
Dying to make your acquaintance
